Coughs.

"Brown's Bronchial Trochies" are used with advantage to alleviate Coughs, Sore Throats, HOARSENESS and BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS. For thirty years these Trochies have been in use, with annually increasing favor. They are not new and artificial, but, having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age.

The Trochies—"Brown's Bronchial Trochies" act directly on the organs of the voice. They have an extraordinary effect in all disorders of the throat and Larynx, restoring a healthy tone when relaxed, either from cold or over-exertion of the voice, and produce a clear and distinct enunciation. Speakers and Singers find the Trochies useful.

A Cough, Cold, Catarrh or Sore Throat requires immediate attention, as neglect often times results in some incurable Lung Disease. "Brown's Bronchial Trochies" will almost invariably give relief. Imitations are offered for sale, many of which are injurious. The genuine "Brown's Bronchial Trochies" are sold only in boxes.

BRIEFLETS.

—Poor soda water weather.

—The temperance workers rally to-night.

—The Canary selling liquor on Sunday case was again adjourned to-day.

—The McCann woolen mill is having a new engine put in place, a new smoke stack, and other improvements.

—The young folk who belong to the Peak family will not meet to-night for rehearsal, but Monday night instead.

—Last night a solitary carouser was run into jail, it being the first victim which the officers have caught for about a week.

—Darius Allen is to give a temperance talk to young men and young women at Cannon's hall, Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

—A drunken corn dealer tried to enliven the streets to-day by throwing stones at a small boy who insisted on ringing an auction bell in his left ear.

—To-morrow night all will have a chance to laugh and be merry, for the New Orleans minstrels are to show up at the Opera house, and will open a big budget of fun and frolic.

—The man Riley, who belonged to the gang of tinkers and horse traders who recently had such a row while in camp here, and who was arrested for stealing a horse, has been acquitted.

—The State Baptist Association is to hold its annual meeting in this city next month. There will be two or three hundred delegates present, and the session will be an important one.

—Richardson Bros. are moving their stock of boots and shoes into their new store and getting all in readiness for a booming trade. They couldn't wait any longer for the glass to come for the front.

—A brass band is being organized in Elkhoru the members of which are pledged not to drink, smoke, chew or swear. We don't see how a band can get along without having a horn occasionally, but perhaps they intend to blow on their good habits.

—There was a quick wedding last night which promised to be anything but quiet, as a gang of unruly boys with loud sounding tin pans and oyster cans formed and marched to the scene of the union, and prepared to give a serenade. Officer Hogan soon appeared in their midst, and there was a lively scattering of the musicians.

—Yesterday J. D. Rexford received the sad news by telegraph, that his son Seneca Rexford died in New York city Wednesday night. He at once started for Sherburn, N. Y., where Mrs. Rexford and her son Benjamin B. Rexford, have taken the remains, they having friends and relatives there, and that being their early place of residence. Probably the funeral will be held there, but this will be determined after Mr. Rexford's arrival there. The young man thus taken away was in his twenty-third year, and for a long time has been in very poor health, and his death does not come as a surprise though it is scarcely less sad.

—Last evening there was a pleasant musicale at Mrs. H. S. Shelton's which was largely attended. The entrance to the house was decorated with Chinese lanterns and other adornments, and within there was a scene of gaiety. Songs were given by Mrs. Kempton, of Chicago, Miss Kate Kimball, of St. Louis, Miss Hattie Dauborn, and Mrs. St. John. Mrs. J. D. King played the accompaniment. Miss Jessie Crosby gave a piano solo. Mrs. H. A. Doty and Miss Hattie McKee gave an instrumental duet. There were abundant refreshments served, and those who desired joined in a merry dance. The musicale was given by Miss Mae Shelton and Miss Hudson in honor of Miss Kimball.

World renowned, as unrivaled, the Astor Horse, NEW YORK.

—William G. Heller, for so many years book-keeper of the Doty Manufacturing Company, has accepted a like position in the Rock County National Bank, and the vacancy thus caused at the Doty works is filled by Orrin W. Benis, who has been in the office of the Wisconsin Shoe Company.

CONFESSES THE MURDER.

Kasperwig Acknowledges that He Shot Blackwell, and Tells the Reason for the Blood Shedding.

The recent Walworth county murder, which led to the arrest of four different persons on the suspicion of having killed Jacob Blackwell, who was shot down near his own door, has been cleared up by the confession of William Kasperwig, one of the parties suspected. The facts gleaned from the Elkhoru Independent, are to the effect that he admits having shot Blackwell, and that he alone is the criminal, there being none others who knew of his intention or participated in the bloody deed. It seems that some years ago Kasperwig married a widow with two girls. He so forgot all manhood as to make one of these step-daughters his mistress, and had a child by her when she was but sixteen years old. Kasperwig was very jealous of her and feared that she would some time marry, or leave him, and became almost insane on this point, watching every admirer of the girl with a hateful eye. So when this girl married Blackwell about two months ago, his devilish nature led him to the determination that Blackwell should die. As a further aggravation the two men had some trouble about some cattle and in this Kasperwig deemed himself greatly wronged, and fresh fuel was added to the flame, and getting his gun he entered Blackwell at night time to the door of his house and fired upon him killing him almost instantly. Kasperwig is a Poleander, about sixty years old, and quite ignorant. The girl who married Blackwell is only now about eighteen years old. Kasperwig denies that she had anything to do with the murder, and seeks to take all the blame himself.

Onions are prescribed as a sure cure for Clerical kissing, and Spring Blossom is a sure cure for Dyspepsia, Indigestion and all Disorders of the Stomach. Sold by A. J. Roberts, and Croft & Sherer.
